Getting Started Quickly

Learning about instruNet Quickly
Please read Chapter 2, Tutorial, in the instruNet User's Manual.

Finding information Quickly
The START menu on the Windows desktop enables one to access instruNet files and information in the Program Files / instruNet / area, summarized below:

`instruNet World`	free strip chart / setup / monitor software
`instruNet Users Manual`	.pdf version of manual
`iW+ Manual`	online iW+ software manual
`instrunet.com`	local copy of instrunet website, on your hard disk
`Application Notes`	over 100 instruNet application notes

Programming Interfaces

`instruNet Basic`	a simple BASIC built into instruNet World
`Visual Basic 4`	interface files and example programs
`Visual Basic 6`	interface files and example programs
`Visual Basic .Net`	interface files and example programs
`Visual C 5`	interface files and example programs
`Visual C .Net`	interface files and example programs

Application Software

`DasyLab`	icon oriented application software
`Direct To Excel`	digitize direct to an excel spreadsheet (requires iW+)
`HPVee`	icon oriented application software
`instruNet World`	free strip chart / setup / monitor software
`LabVIEW`	icon oriented application software
`TestPoint`	program with dialog boxes
`VB Applications`	free VB Scope / VB Instrument programs

Documentation

`Application Notes`	over 100 instruNet application notes
`Product History`	bug fix history
`Installation`	how to install instruNet hardware & software
`Software Updates`	how to obtain free software updates
`Troubleshooting`	how to troubleshoot hardware & software
`instruNet Users Manual`	.pdf version of manual
`iW+ Manual`	online iW+ software manual

Demonstration Software