

3rd Party Disconnectable Screw Terminals

Application Note #2, 4/30/1998

If someone needs screw terminal access where the screw terminal block can disconnect, we recommend that the end user buy disconnectable screw terminals. Phoenix Contact, Inc and On Shore Technology, Inc (distributed by Digikey) manufacture a male and female pair, where the female can attach directly to GWI screw terminals, and the male can plug into the female, where the other side of the male provides screw terminals access. DigiKey is very easy to buy from.
